General Comment

I am more than capable of managing my own money, without any government intrusions.

Please respect the general consensus of the public, and stay away from our money, we the people do not need or want our elected officials trying to run every aspect of our lives, stay away from my bank account!

I have worked far too many years preparing for retirement, and increasing the value of my accounts.

Submitted with the hope that this will make a difference.

Thank You.
