General Comment

I don't need nor want any 'government expert' agent or agency deciding how I should invest for my retirement. The very IDEA that the government or an employee of the government has all the retirement answers is insulting. I suggest you put all this paperwork setting up this agency and plan in the shred bin ASAP. And fire the stupid idiot who came up with the idea. On second thought, maybe you should keep him on, as a janitor since the government's own retirement program is so structured it is obviously what he or she needs. So he doesn't have to think or make decisions on his or her own...
