General Comment

What right do any of you government officials to my retirement? I can plan for my own and keep Social security on track and stop taking from that and then maybe Americans can actually look forward to that. You people up there make me sick but it's messages like mine you'll ignore and keep doing what you do thinking your serving but you are not when you are going against our own money. Let states and individuals make their own decisions and stay out of our accounts. This is nothing but greed and the need for you to tell us what to do. Just stay out our business let us pay our taxes and then leave us alone. I don't need you wiping my butt, if I create a mess I'll do what I can to clean it up and if I need help I certainly won't ask any government officials first.
