Drop this whole thing . I did not read it all . Don't want to ... don't have to .

This is more government involvement in personal business .

I don't need it .

In particular where YOU PEOPLE want to set it up that I can't trade in an IRA with Options as a self directed investor .

It's my business . Not yours . If I fail it's my problem . If I succeed it's my money .. well maybe not all of it with the IRS still around . But in any event .

Why don't you people just stay home ... I would even let you collect your pay if you would just stay the hell out of my life .

I don't want to see this new packet of regulation created .
