Subject: Hello regarding fiduciary rule

Fiduciary Rule? Why don't you find out why the middle class is being taken advantage by the low interest rates the federal reserve is giving seniors. My parents used to get 5% on their savings which allowed them and others to make a living off of their savings not cut into the principal, which like many americans, leave to their children.

C'mon folks the focus is so far off as to create a great under class and a destruction of the American Dearm. Gone. Flat Gone.

Legislate the Feds, The Banks, and anyone else who is using the stock market like a roulette wheel. Casino Politics is going to destroy people.

I have worked with people for 40 years and they have done extremely well without risk. Lock up congress for even suggesting this as a means to help wall street rip offs.

Just a suggestion. Thank You. American Dream? 1 percent of the people has 90% of all the money. Wrong culprit folks. Stop picking on us who do a great job protecting young and old alike and stop listening to the wall street hucksters.

Lots of Love Folks.

Do some good..

Thanks, Leon Fainstadt, worked with Robert Kennedy as part of his advance team. or listen to Stockman who worked with Ronald Reagan.
