I do not support the idea of converting private 401K accounts into government-run “guaranteed retirement accounts.”

As spoken by the Buddha, life is pain and suffering. Nirvana is recognizing the miracle of every moment, even the pain. We are alive for joy and struggle.

STOP trying to recreate Utopia. It doesn't work! It stifles individuality and creative thinking. STOP trying to level the playing field. STOP trying to manage the people of this country. STOP promising false promises of security in regards to healthcare and retirement. There are NO GUARANTEES! That is life!

These policies are an abomination!
