

From: Juanita Price
To: E-OHPSCA2713.EBSA
Subject: Women's healthcare
Date: Wednesday, August 10, 2011 7:39:47 PM

Women deserve a health care plan that allow them to choose a doctor, clinic or medical facility that suits their individual needs. Reproductive rights should not dictated by any group, organization, religion, or government agency. A woman should be able to choose and control the kind of medical services she receives. I urge you to ensure women have access to quality preventive care by accepting IOM's recommendations and rejecting the proposed religious refusal exemption provisions.