General Comment

I say this with still much pain, that I know will never go away, it's been years now, when I heard about not wanting to give preventive care, I could only remember, how I felt, what happens if a company do not want to carry Preventive Care for Woman.

I'm going to try and make this as short as I can, because too many bad memiors fir me to endure. I could only ask in the form of a question, What do a woman do when she is gang raped on a job?
