General Comment

My investments within tax-qualified retirement plans governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act should be able to consider whether or not companies have established diverse leadership teams, whether they foster inclusive or discriminatory workplaces, and whether they engage in a variety of other practices that may impact a company's performance and the environment.

Socially responsible funds allow me to put my money where my heart is. There should be no rushing of rules in this time of pandemic when people's attention is on the crisis at hand.
