General Comment

Federal Registrar John smith,

I support the Department of Labor's revision of the Trump era rules to give workers and retirees greater ability to choose sustainable investment options.

I personally have practiced socially responsible investing for decades, and when I have been offered 403(b)s have always sought SRI/ESG options---such options should be available to all workers.

Please do the right thing and give retirees and their retirement plans the power and flexibility to decide which investments fit their needs, without the burdens and restrictions of the Trump-era rules.
