General Comment

Please keep your hands off my 401k. I am retired and am already suffering with the increased cost of gasoline and food. My 401k is sacred to me in that it will ensure that I have sufficient funds for the rest of my life and will not be a burden on the federal government for housing, food and medical expenses. If you force me into funds based on "wokeness" rather than potential, I may lose money. So tired of all this administration's nonsense. Where's my freedom as an American citizen?
