

Finding the Right Fit: Opportunities in Behavioral Health

Pick the phrase that best describes you. Learn more about the recommended opportunities in the corresponding data deck.

HOW TO USE:

This resource supports career navigation efforts in the behavioral health space. It is intended for individuals interested in exploring opportunities in behavioral health based on interests and job preferences.

This activity builds off of learners experiencing the O*NET Interest Profiler.

As part of this resource, there is a complementary slide deck that provides more information on what each opportunity looks like, including information on wages, job growth, and compatible skills.
