

Eligibility Guide Policy Clarifications: See clarifications in red below.

Clarification for Criterion 7(a)-7(c)

Prior to 5.12.22, sufficient documentation for this criterion includes the following: 1) signed observation from admissions staff of the applicant’s verbal consent with 7(a)-7(c), OR 2) applicant self-attestation of their consent with 7(a)-7(c) language.

As of 5.12.22, sufficient documentation for this criterion includes the following: 1) applicant’s signed receipt of student code of conduct and disciplinary policies, which includes 7(a)-7(c) language, OR 2) applicant signed self-attestation of their consent with 7(a)-7(c) language.

Criterion 7. Group Participation

It can be reasonably expected that the applicant can participate successfully in group situations and activities.

Eligibility Requirement Details	Documentation Evidence
The grantee must assess the likelihood that the applicant appears willing to function as a part of a group and can successfully participate in group situations and activities, including multi-cultural environments.	The grantee must document the applicant’s willingness to function as part of a group. If the applicant appears unwilling, that should be documented as well.

Criterion 7(a). Interference with Other Students’ Participation

It can be reasonably expected that the applicant is unlikely to engage in actions that would potentially prevent other students from receiving program benefits.

Eligibility Requirement Details	Documentation Evidence
The grantee must assess from the applicant’s behavior whether the applicant would likely prevent other students’ participation.	The grantee must document that the applicant is not likely to engage in actions that would potentially prevent other students from participating and receiving program benefits. Any behavior observed by the grantee that would indicate an applicant is likely to prevent other students from receiving benefits must also be documented.

Criterion 7(b). Maintenance of Sound Discipline and Positive Campus Culture

It can be reasonably expected that the applicant’s behavior is compatible with the maintenance of sound discipline and positive center culture.

Eligibility Requirement Details	Documentation Evidence
The grantee must assess whether the applicant’s behavior is compatible with the maintenance of sound discipline and positive campus culture. Appendix 102 provides additional information to consider when making this assessment.	The grantee must document that the applicant acknowledges compliance with the grantee’s code of conduct and disciplinary policies.

Criterion 7(c). Community Relations

It can be reasonably expected that the applicant is not likely to engage in actions that would impede satisfactory relationships between the Job Corps Scholars program and its surrounding community.

Eligibility Requirement Details	Documentation Evidence
Applicant can participate successfully in situations and activities in the community, and is not likely to engage in actions that would potentially impede satisfactory relationships between the Job Corps Scholars grant program and its surrounding communities.	The grantee must document that the applicant expresses a willingness to participate in community activities and refrain from engaging in actions that would potentially impede relationships between Job Corps Scholars and the community.

Clarification for Criterion 8

Prior to 5.12.22, sufficient documentation for this criterion includes the following: 1) signed observation from admissions staff of the applicant’s verbal consent with criterion 8, OR 2) applicant self-attestation of their consent with criterion 8 language.

As of 5.12.22, sufficient documentation for this criterion includes the following: 1) applicant’s signed receipt of student code of conduct and disciplinary policies, which includes criterion 8 language, OR 2) applicant signed self-attestation of their consent with criterion 8 language.

Criterion 8. Understanding and Agreeing to Comply with the Rules

The applicant demonstrates a basic understanding of the rules of the grantee and the Job Corps Scholars program and the consequences of failure to follow the rules.

Eligibility Requirement Details	Documentation Evidence
The grantee must assess an applicant’s understanding and willingness to abide with the Job Corps Scholars program and grantee’s rules and the consequences for not following those rules.	The grantee must document that the applicant expresses and demonstrates willingness to follow the rules.
