General Comment

This is very important for people who have little financial acumen.

The Bill allows people like me to feel comfortable knowing I am receiving sound advice from a financial adviser rather than a salesman.

As a thrift savings plan participant, I am troubled that the people I seek advice from may have a financial incentive to advise me to roll my account into a fund they manage because that is how they would make money, even if it would result in lower returns for me, because there are no legal ramifications for such behavior.
