General Comment

Your proposed to end the option in IRA account is unfair to IRA account holder to protect themselves in stock market.

Currently my IRA account will only allow me to underwrite covered option trade, Which means in the worst case, all I'll have to do is to sell my holding share at set price. This is me is most safest way in the investment world today I know that where I know my worst case risk for protection or profit I try to obtain. Please keep the Option available for the fairness of the IRA holder. Thanks!

Sincerely,
