Re: RIN 1210 - AB32

I am not sure if this new regulation would prevent investors from trading options in IRA's, but if so, please do not implement such a restriction. After learning how to do so, I have been trading options in my IRA in order to reduce risk and increase income. My IRA value has grown as a result of trading options. Please continue to allow investors the capacity to trade options in Individual Retirement Accounts.

Thank you,
