General Comment

I respectfully request that no restrictions be made that prohibit buying and selling options in IRA brokerage accounts. I have learned how to properly use covered calls to make additional income. I also frequently use put transactions to protect stock positions and to help me purchase stocks at advantageous prices and/or make additional income.

I believe a prohibition of these transactions will greatly limit my ability to make additional income in my IRA accounts. Please do not restrict these transactions, thus reducing my retirement funds.

Thank you.
