General Comment

I am totally opposed to RIN 1210 - AB32 due to the provision limiting the use of options in retirement accounts. This is a direct attack on a persons ability to invest in their future. I am willing to take a risk with my own money for my own retirement. God knows the Soc Security contributions I have put in at the maximum rate for many many years will undoubtedly go to others and now you are limiting the money that I personally am protecting my future with. This is just plain un American. I urge you to jettison this provision
