General Comment

Hello,

I started investing when I was 25 yrs old. I made a lot of mistakes along the way but also learnt a few tricks that would boost my income. One of those tricks is options trading. It not only gives me confidence in my trading abilities but also adds to my retirement account on a regular basis. This definitely helps me achieve the kind of financial freedom that most people only dream of. Please do not remove this life saving option from retirement accounts that has helped my account grow but will continue to do so in the future.

Thanks.

From a humble taxpayer,
GT
