General Comment

I have a choice right now to use options to help protect my 401k or IRA portfolio if i desire, there is inherently risk in everything we do. If you think changing this law will protect people your wrong and will cause more damage then good. I have learned about the risks involved, I have lost and I have gained, but certainly no worse then anything the market has done to my portfolio. Please stop interfering with the few things we have left to help plan for retirement.
