General Comment

Dear Madam's and Gentlemen,

My concerns regarding <http://www.regulations.gov/#!documentDetail;D=EBSA-2010-0050-3076> is that a vote for removing the right for Retirees to use the Option vehicle to add to their income will constrict of retiree an opportunity to increase the small income they will earn from limited fixed income.

By using the selling of puts and selling of calls is an excellent way to add to the retired's income making life easier for them and giving them purpose all the while adding to their nest egg.

Banks and Financial institutions have used these two methods of trading Options almost exclusively to add to their bottom line and I implore you to consider that as a real possibility for those with IRA accounts.

Thank You For Listening,
