

Potential Entitlement to Regular Unemployment Compensation (UC) in Another State

Coordination of Emergency Unemployment Compensation, 2008 (EUC08) with Regular UC for Individuals Who Have Potential Regular UC Entitlement in Another State
Regular UC State Option:	EUC08 State Actions	Regular UC State Actions
A ¹ The State will defer regular UC payments; see UIPL 04-10, Change 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Notify individuals with potential entitlement to regular UC in another state that in order to continue receipt of benefits (either EUC08 or regular UC) they must contact the Regular UC State within 10 business days from the date of the notification sent to the individual (follow guidance in Item #4 of this UIPL). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once contacted by the claimant, determine whether the regular UC WBA is at least $100 or 25 percent less than the EUC08 WBA. If the criterion is met, defer regular UC payments and advise the EUC08 State to continue EUC08, If not met, advise the EUC08 State to stop EUC08 payments; regular UC may commence.²
B ¹ The State will put wages on “hold;” see UIPL 04-10, Change 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Same as above 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once contacted by the claimant, determine regular UC eligibility and whether WBA is at least $100 or 25 percent less than the EUC08 WBA. If the criterion is met, “put wages on hold” and advise the EUC08 State to continue EUC08 payments If not met, advise the EUC08 State to stop EUC08 payments; regular UC may commence.²
D ¹ The State will provide Affected Claimants the Option to continue EUC08; see UIPL 04-10, Change 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Same as above 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once contacted by the claimant, determine new entitlement and WBA. If the new WBA is at least $100 or 25 percent less than the EUC08 WBA, provide sufficient information to allow the individual to make an informed choice whether to remain on EUC08.³ Advise the EUC08 State whether or not to continue EUC08 payments.²

1 State EUC08 Options are not subject to appeal by the affected individuals.

2 States may use the ICON “UI Mail” application to communicate.

3 Responsibility for advising individuals of their options under Option D lies with the Regular UC State. Regular UC States have the information necessary to advise individuals of their options and under Option D, these states will be providing such option(s) to all other qualifying individuals in the state.