

CHILD LABOR: PREVENTION, RECOGNITION AND INTERVENTION
Exersise 2. RECOGNITION OF CHILD LABOR

	EXAMPLE	YES	NOT	MAYBIE
1.	A boy (13) is handing out flyers for his mom's hair salon on the street.
2.	A girl (12) earns money by selling flowers on the street and in cafes.
3.	A boy (8) picks fruit with his family on various plantations.
4.	A girl (11) is in the company of her mother who sells old things on the street.
5.	During the holidays, the boy (10) works with his mother for several hours a day and helps her sell fruits and vegetables.
6.	A boy (11) washes windshields with his brother (17) at a major intersection.
7.	Two boys (7 and 5) begs on the street in the evening.
8.	Girls (15, 16 and 17) sing and play music on the promenade.
9.	A boy (5) sells tissues to passers-by in the park.
10.	A mother with a baby begs in front of a shopping mall.
11.	A brother and sister (10 and 12) sporadically beg on the street, only when their parents are prevented from working.
12.	A boy (7) plays the violin on the quay in bright sunlight.
13.	Two boys (10 and 14) save a place for drivers in the parking lot for money.
14.	A girl (13) takes care of the household of an immobile elderly person for money.
15.	A girl (12) delivers groceries to elderly people in the neighbourhood for 10 hours a week.
16.	A boy (16) works with his father on the reconstruction of roofs for 8 hours a day.
17.	Parents with two children (5 and 10 years old) collect secondary raw materials. Children sit on the tiller most of the time, but occasionally help their parents.
18.	A girl (16) works 8 hours a day on a chicken farm. She is paid, does not work with machines and pesticides, and does not go to school.
19.	The boy (14) was paid to work in the garage
20.	A group of children (ages 7, 14 and 4) sing and play for money in public city transport.			