Lissette and Kelley,

Can you each take a look at the transition book (I attached the one that went in November) and make sure we didn't include something that was not publicly available?

See Stan's email below regarding the tables and charts.

Thanks,
Patty

Good morning –

As you know, the Department has received a FOIA request seeking copies of the November 2020 transition briefing materials prepared for the Agency Review Team. We had previously asked you to prepare your materials to ensure that there isn't a non-public information included, and later to review your materials to confirm that was the case. It's been requested that we have you do that again and report affirmatively to OASAM that there is nothing to withhold. Please send me an email by noon on Friday with your status.

If you need guidance on the FOIA exemptions, please refer to the Department's FOIA Best Practices Guide at: <https://labornet.dol.gov/workplaceresources/policies/FOIA/DOL-FOIA-Best-Practices.pdf>.

Again, the only review you need to do is your agency's briefing book that was finalized before the election. Any December updates to the book or materials provided to the ART since transition started are not the subject of this FOIA request. I'm hoping that this won't be a heavy lift given you've already reviewed your materials. Happy to discuss at tomorrow's Council meeting if there are questions.

Thanks,
Chris

Hi Patty and Kelley,

The regional narratives need more editing that I anticipated. In the attached version, I edited the regional pages through page 19.

What remains to be done:

- Regional narratives pages 20 through 29,
- Updating the calendar in Tab 4
- Including a paragraph about the Operating Plan at the top of Tab 5
- Correcting formatting issues

Good morning,

I need your assistance with some formatting issues I can't correct in the Agency Head Transition Binder:

- Header for Tab 3 should be Calendar
- The numbering is wrong. Also, the font should be Times New Roman size 10, and position in the bottom center.
- Ensure the Table of Contents page numbers coincide with the page number where each Tab begins.

The Binder is attached.

Jenny,

Last document tonight – I promise. You can peruse the book at your leisure. I am thinking we will set up briefings starting tomorrow (if we can) with regard to Policy, Budget/Resources, and Enforcement. If you like, we can include CRLM.

Best,
Patty
