HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE 2009 FORM 5500 GROUP HEALTH PLANS REPORTS

The universe of group health insurance plans filing a Form 5500 is diverse and complicated. Varying benefit structures, funding arrangements, and relationships to insurance are all major components of the complexity. For purposes of generating this Report, EBSA classified private sector employer-sponsored group health employee benefit plans as either self-insured, fully-insured, or mixed-insured. Appendix A1 at the end of this report provides more information on the classification methodology. Additionally, the methodology for selecting data underlying this Report is based upon Form 5500 plan year end dates; in contrast, the methodology for selecting data underlying the 2011 Report to Congress was, roughly, based upon plan year beginning dates. See Appendix A2 for details on the different plan selection methodologies.

Other findings from private sector employer-sponsored group health plans filing Form 5500 series welfare reports for plan year 2009 are summarized below.

- Of the more than 50,000 private sector, employer-sponsored group health employee benefit plans that filed a 2009 Form 5500, 80 percent offered other welfare benefits in addition to health benefits (such as dental, vision, life, disability, etc.). Fourteen percent of these plans can be described as having both self-insured and fully-insured characteristics (mixed-insured) for their health benefits. Sixty-one percent of these plans can be described as having fully-insured health benefits. The remaining 25 percent can be described as having self-insured health benefits.
- Fifty-eight percent of all private sector single employer group health plans that filed a 2009 Form 5500 provided fully-insured health benefits to their employees. Multiemployer group health plans were much less likely to provide fully-insured health benefits; only 14 percent of those plans did so in 2009.
- In 2009, less than 15,000, or 30 percent, of the approximately 50,000 private sector employer-sponsored group health plans that filed a Form 5500 can be categorized as self-insured. Of the remaining 35,000 group health plans, approximately 6,000 can be categorized as mixed-insured, and 29,000 can be categorized as fully-insured. (See Table A1.)
- Approximately 14,000 of the group health plans categorized as self-insured are single employer plans; the remaining 1,000 are multiemployer plans. Of the 6,000 group health plans categorized as mixed-insured, the majority are single employer with less than 1,000 being multiemployer plans. Nearly all of the 29,000 group health plans categorized as fully-insured are single employer with less than 500 being multiemployer plans. (See Table A2.)
- Nearly three-quarters of the group health plans categorized as self-insured covered more than 100 participants and did not operate a trust. Approximately half of all mixed-insured group health plans and nearly all of the fully-insured group health plans covered more than 100 participants and did not operate a trust. (See Table A2.)
- Approximately 40,000 group health plans that filed a 2009 Form 5500 offered an additional welfare benefit. Sixty-eight percent of the self-insured group health plans, 88 percent of the mixed-insured group health plans, and 85 percent of the fully-insured group health plans offered a benefit in addition to health insurance. (See Table A1.)
- Of the almost 29,000 fully-insured group health plans filing a 2009 Form 5500, 99 percent are single employer plans.

Most, 88 percent, of mixed-insured group health plans are single employer. (See Table A2.)

- In total, group health plans that filed a Form 5500 held about $125 billion in assets as of the end of 2009. Self-insured group health plans held more than $73 billion; mixed-insured group health plans held more than $38 billion; and almost $6 billion was held by fully-insured group health plans. (See Table A2.)
- Self-insured group health plans covering 100 or more participants held approximately 27 percent of their assets in cash and U.S. Government Securities, 20 percent in direct filing entities, 16 percent in mutual fund companies (registered investment companies), 11 percent in debt instruments, and 9 percent in stock. Mixed-insured group health plans covering 100 or more participants held approximately 16 percent of their assets in cash and U.S. Government Securities, 26 percent in direct filing entities, 12 percent in mutual fund, 9 percent in debt instruments, and 16 percent in stock. Fully-insured group health plans covering 100 or more participants held approximately 19 percent of their assets in cash and U.S. Government Securities, 22 percent in direct filing entities, 17 percent in mutual fund companies, 7 percent in debt instruments, and 9 percent in stock. (See Table A6.)
- Form 5500 group health plan filers reported almost $22 billion in liabilities as of the end of 2009: more than $7 billion was reported by self-insured group health plans, $14 billion by mixed-insured group health plans, and $1 billion by fully-insured group health plans. (See Table A2.)
- Approximately 36 percent, or 24 million, of the over 67 million participants in group health plans filing a 2009 Form 5500 were covered under self-insured group health plans.¹ (See Table A2.)

- Of the 50,000 group health plans that filed a 2009 Form 5500, approximately 20,000 indicated a funding arrangement of insurance only, nearly 3,000 indicated a funding arrangement of a trust only, and more than 17,000 indicated a funding arrangement of general assets of the sponsor and insurance. The remaining 10,000 2009 Form 5500 group health plan filers indicated some other combination of funding arrangements or did not report any arrangement. (See Table A7.)
- Overall, group health plans reported on their 2009 Form 5500 receiving approximately $147 billion in contributions in 2009, less than $119 billion contributed by the employer and $26 billion contributed by the plan participants. Approximately $143 billion of these contributions were contributed to large plans that used a trust. (See Table A4.)
- In 2009, group health plans filing a Form 5500 that used trusts posted investment income gains of over $16 billion, of which less than $3 billion was gained by self-insured group health plans, $13 billion by mixed-insured group health plans, and less than $1 billion by fully-insured group health plans. (See Table A4.)
- Self-insured group health plans that filed a 2009 Form 5500 made benefit payments of about $31 billion directly to participants and almost $3 billion to insurance carriers for the provision of other insured benefits. Mixed-insured group health plans made benefit payments to participants totaling about $71 billion and made payments to insurance carriers of $26 billion. Fully-insured group health plans made no benefit payments to participants and made payments to insurance carriers of approximately $6 billion. (See Table A5.)

plans) which are unfunded, fully-insured, or a combination of insured and unfunded.

- In total, group health plans filing a 2009 Form 5500 reported approximately $8 billion in administrative expenses.² Self-insured group health plans reported less than $3 billion; mixed-insured group health plans reported approximately $5 billion; and fully-insured group health plans reported under $500 million. (See Table A5.)

² Administrative expenses are reported on the Form 5500 Schedule H - Financial Information, Part II - Income and Expense Statement, line number 2(i) - Administrative expenses. For 2008 and earlier, Schedule I filers reported administrative expenses as other expenses. Therefore, administrative expenses for Schedule I filers are not reported here. For 2009 and later, Schedule I filers reported administrative expenses separately. Plans reported all administrative expenses, expenses incurred in the general operations of the plan, paid by or charged to the plan. Therefore, the reported administrative expenses did not include any expenses paid directly by the employer sponsoring the plan.

Note: Excludes plans (a) covering only one participant or (b) which are not required to file.

Note: Values in this table are representative of the indication of funding arrangement (Form 5500 line item 9(a)) and benefit arrangement (Form 5500 line item 9(b)) as originally reported by the plans. Plans were categorized into the three subpanels of (1) Plans with 100 or More Participants & Trusts, (2) Plans with 100 or More Participants & No Trust, and (3) Plans with Fewer Than 100 Participants & Trusts based on the response to either the funding arrangement indicator, benefit arrangement indicator, or the inclusion of a financial schedule. Thus, this table shows a positive number of plans on the rows for Insurance only in the panels for Plans with Trusts.

1/ Includes single employer plans, plans of controlled groups of corporations and multiple employer noncollectively bargained plans.

2/ Includes multiemployer plans and multiple employer collectively bargained plans.

3/ Funding arrangements were adjusted to match the categorization of the plans as self-insured, mixed-insured, or fully-insured.

4/ The Form 5500 Short Form does not require plans to report on the funding nor benefit arrangements.

5/ Includes only plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the end of the plan year.

A plan may have more than one insurance contract. This information is reported as filed on Schedule A with the following exceptions. For fully-insured and mixed-insured plans which do not attach a Schedule A for health insurance contracts, Schedule A is assumed to indicate one health insurance contract. The result is that for fully-insured and mixed-insured plans for which there is no Schedule A record of a health insurance contract, one is added to the contract count of the given plan.

2/ Includes active, retired, and separated participants either receiving benefits or entitled to future benefits. For Form 5500 Short Form filers, this number may also include deceased participants whose beneficiaries are receiving or are entitled to receive benefits.

3/ Includes single employer plans, plans of controlled groups of corporations and multiple employer noncollectively bargained plans.

4/ Includes multiemployer plans and multiple employer collectively bargained plans.

5/ Includes only plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the end of the plan year.

*/ Fewer than 500 participants.

APPENDIX A1: Plan Funding Classification

The majority of the U.S. population receives their health insurance coverage through their employer. In 2009, employer-sponsored health insurance covered 56 percent of the U.S. population.¹ There are a variety of ways in which plan sponsors (usually employers) may fund the health insurance coverage they offer their workers.²

What Is a Self-Insured Group Health Plan?

Sponsors may purchase a group insurance policy from a state-licensed insurance carrier or similar organization and pay premiums directly to the insurer. Plans may set aside assets in a dedicated trust to fund the health plan, an arrangement known as a “funded” arrangement for Form 5500 reporting purposes. Alternatively plan sponsors may pay the plan’s benefits directly out of their general assets, an arrangement known as “unfunded” for Form 5500 reporting purposes. In addition, these funding arrangements – insured, funded, and unfunded – may be combined in multiple ways. For example, a group insurance policy may cover a subset of the plan’s health benefits but the plan’s remaining health benefits may be paid out of the plan sponsor’s general assets. Plans may use assets held in a dedicated trust to pay insurance premiums or to pay plan benefits directly. Whether a plan is considered to be self-insured, fully-insured, or a mixture of both is a function of how the benefits are provided under the plan.

¹ U.S. Department of Labor, Employee Benefits Security Administration calculations using the March 2010 Current Population Survey Annual Social and Economic Supplement.

² Upon establishment of a welfare plan, the plan sponsor decides how the plan will be structured – including how the plan benefits will be paid.

Fully-insured – A fully-insured plan provides health benefits by purchasing a group health insurance policy or contract from a state-licensed insurance carrier or similar organization, such as Blue Cross Blue Shield or a health maintenance organization. The insurance carrier then assumes financial responsibility for the covered health benefit claims of the plan’s participants and associated administrative costs.³ An employer with a fully-insured health plan chooses how to transfer insurance premiums⁴ to the insurance carrier: The plan either establishes a trust for the express purpose of receiving contributions for the payment of insurance premiums or pays the premiums directly from the plan sponsor’s general assets.

Self-insured – In the case of a self-insured health plan, the sponsor generally assumes the financial risks associated with covering the health benefit expenses of the plan’s participants. Benefits in a self-insured plan may be paid as needed directly from the general assets of the sponsoring employer or paid from a trust⁵ to which employer and/or employee contributions have been made. While some self-insured plans are self-administered, employers usually enter into a contract with a third party administrator (TPA) or use another outside entity to handle enrollment, pay claims, collect premiums, provide customer service, and perform other administrative duties.

The financial risk for self-insured benefit claims may be borne partially or entirely by the employer offering the self-insured

⁴ The premium payments could be paid entirely by the employer, entirely by employee contributions, or partly from the employer and partly from employee contributions.

⁵ Some employers may invest plan assets in a separate insurance company account instead of holding plan assets and investing through a trust.

plan. To protect against unexpectedly large claims, self-insured plans or employers sponsoring such plans may obtain stop-loss insurance coverage. Stop-loss coverage limits the liability (stops the loss) the plan or employer bears for each covered person's health care costs (in the case of policies with individual or specific attachment points) or for the total expenses of the plan (aggregate attachment points), as the stop-loss carrier will reimburse the plan or employer for losses above the policies attachment points.⁶

Form 5500 Health Plan Filing Requirements

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), establish certain reporting and filing obligations for private-sector employee benefit plans. Plans generally are required to file an annual return/report concerning, among other things, the financial condition and operations of the plan.

In 1975, the Department of Labor (the "Department"), the Internal Revenue Service, and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (collectively, the "Agencies") jointly developed the Form 5500 Series to allow employers who sponsor an employee benefit plan for their employees to satisfy the annual reporting requirements under Title I and Title IV of ERISA and under the Code. The Agencies have changed the Form 5500

⁶ An employer may also purchase a "minimum premium" arrangement in which the employer pays a fraction of the fully-insured premium to cover non-claim expenses, such as administration and claims processing, and pays claims up to an agreed-upon limit, after which the insurance carrier is responsible. Under a minimum premium arrangement, the insurance carrier usually is also responsible for processing claims and administrative services. See e.g., U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Definitions of Health Insurance Terms, at <http://www.bls.gov/ncs/ebs/sp/healthterms.pdf>. Last viewed February 24, 2011.

over time. Today, filing the Form 5500 together with any required Schedules and Attachments (the "Form 5500") generally satisfies these annual reporting requirements.⁷

The Form 5500 is an important source of information on ERISA-covered, private sector employer-sponsored benefit plans and their operation, funding, assets, and investments. The majority of Form 5500 reports are filed for employee pension benefit plans. Welfare benefit plans (which includes plans providing benefits such as medical, dental, life insurance, severance pay, disability, etc.) are required to file a Form 5500, with certain exceptions tied to plans' size, funding arrangement, and sector. These exceptions are listed below:⁸

- Welfare plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the beginning of the plan year ("small" plans) that are unfunded, fully-insured, or a combination of insured and unfunded⁹;
- Welfare plans maintained outside the U. S. that serve mostly nonresident aliens;
- Governmental plans;
- Unfunded or insured welfare plans maintained for a select group of management or highly compensated employees only;

⁷ See ERISA Section 101 et seq., 29 U.S.C. 1021 et seq. and accompanying regulations. The data used for this report were taken from the Form 5500 data for plan years 2009 and earlier. For plan years beginning on or after January 1, 2009, certain eligible small plans are able to file the Form 5500-SF "Short Form Annual Return/Report of Small Employee Benefit Plan." Small plans using the Form 5500-SF include information about total fees and commissions paid with respect to the purchase of insurance.

⁹ An unfunded welfare benefit plan has its benefits paid as needed directly from the general assets of the employer or employee organization that sponsors the plan. A combination unfunded/insured welfare benefit plan has its benefits partially as an unfunded plan and partially as a fully-insured plan. An example of such a plan is a welfare benefit plan that provides unfunded medical benefits and life insurance benefits.

- Plans maintained only to comply with workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, or disability insurance laws;
- Welfare benefit plans that participate in a group insurance arrangement that files a Form 5500 on behalf of the participating plans;
- Apprenticeship or training plans meeting certain conditions;
- Certain unfunded welfare benefit plans financed by dues;
- Church plans;
- Welfare benefit plans maintained solely for only the owner and/or spouse who wholly own a trade or business or the partners and/or spouses of partners in a partnership.

A small plan that receives employee (or former employee) contributions during the plan year and does not use the contributions to pay insurance premiums or uses a trust or separately maintained fund to hold plan assets or act as a conduit for the transfer of plan assets during the year is required to file; except that a small plan with employee contributions that are used to pay benefits instead of insurance premiums which is associated with a cafeteria plan under Internal Revenue Code section 125 may be treated for annual reporting purposes as an unfunded welfare plan if it meets certain Department requirements.

For purposes of this report, Form 5500 health plans are categorized as being self-insured, fully-insured, or a mix of both self-insured and fully-insured (mixed-insured). The Department used information from the 2009 Form 5500 on plans' funding arrangements, together with information from Schedule A "Insurance Information," Schedule H "Financial Information," and Schedule I "Financial Information - Small Plan" to categorize the plans as follows:

- (1) Self-insured. The plan does not include information on a health insurance policy or contract in any Schedule A filed as part of the Form 5500 and the filing either:
 - (a) indicates the plan is funded through a trust or general assets of the sponsor, or
 - (b) the filing includes a Schedule H or Schedule I.
- (2) Mixed-insured. The plan does not meet the requirements in (1) and
 - (a) the number of individuals covered under insurance contracts as reported on the Schedule A is less than half of the total number of participants as of the end of the plan year, or
 - (b) the filing's Schedule H indicates that benefits were paid directly to participants or
 - (c) the plan attaches a Schedule I.
- (3) Fully-insured. The plan does not meet the criteria in (1) or (2).

For purposes of this report, private sector employer-sponsored health plans were also divided into six distinct categories based on the Form 5500 filing requirements:

- Small plans (covering fewer than 100 participants as of the beginning of the year) that fully-insure their health plan;
- Small plans that self-insure but do not have a trust;
- Small plans that self-insure their health plan, and use a trust to hold the plan assets;
- Large plans (covering 100 or more participants as of the beginning of the year) that fully-insure health plans;
- Large plans that self-insure and use a trust to hold the plan assets; and
- Large plans that self-insure but do not operate a trust.

Generally, small group health plans that fully-insure benefits or self-insure benefits but do not have a trust are not required to file a Form 5500.¹⁰ All large welfare plans that fully-insure or self-insure benefits without a trust must file, but are only required to file the main Form 5500 and the Schedule A to report information about insurance contracts.

The tables in this document summarize Form 5500 data for health plans that file. In many cases, the reported data reflect adjustments made to correct inaccuracies within the data. For plan years prior to 2009, most plans filed paper copies of the Form 5500 and these filings were scanned in order to compile data. For plan year 2009, all plans were required to file electronically. During the scanning process, information from the forms was not always accurately captured. Therefore, the data presented in the following tables have been edited to accurately reflect the original information provided. In addition to inaccuracies introduced by scanning, some filings are received with logical inconsistencies. For instance, some plans which are categorized as fully-insured due to the presence of a Schedule A for health insurance do not report being funded by insurance. Many of these inconsistencies have been corrected by imputing Form 5500 information based on other information reported. It should be noted here, however, that information from Schedule A is always reported as filed, i.e., no Schedule A information has been edited or imputed.

¹⁰ Large plans that use a trust to hold the plan assets to self-insure health benefits are required to file a comprehensive Form 5500, including a Schedule H to report financial information about the plan's operations. Generally, those small plans that use a trust to self-insure their health benefits are not required to file a Schedule H. These filings include more abbreviated financial information about the plan's operation as filed on Schedule I or the Form 5500 Short Form.

APPENDIX A2: CHANGES TO PLAN SELECTION METHODOLOGY

The Group Health Plans Report: March 2012, Abstract of 2009 Form 5500 Annual Reports Reflecting Statistical Year Filings (March 2012 Report) reflects several changes made after the publication of the Group Health Plans Report: March 2011, Abstract of 2008 Form 5500 Annual Reports Reflecting Calendar Year Filings (March 2011 Report). These changes concern two fundamental operations performed to create the data files that underlie the Reports: (1) defining the plan year and (2) the treatment of terminating plans.

EBSA Data Systems

Under the ERISA Filing Acceptance System (EFAST) processing effort, processed Form 5500 filings received prior to January 1, 2010, were loaded into a database that consists of all Form 5500 Forms and Schedules, as well as generated summary information, for each employee benefit plan year. This database includes unedited Form 5500 Annual Return/Reports for pension plans, welfare plans, and direct filing entities (DFEs); Form 5500-EZ (One-Participant Plan) filings; and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) entity information. The database is divided into sets of data tables based on when the Form 5500 filings were processed, leading to sets of data that were divided largely based on plan year beginning dates, with some exceptions.

For example, approximately 87 percent of all Form 5500 filings found in the 2008 data library are for plans with a 2008 plan year of January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008.¹ Approximately 13 percent of all Form 5500 filings found in the 2008 data library are for 2008 plans whose plan year begins on or after January 2, 2008 and ends in 2009.² The remaining filings in the 2008 data library are for 2008 plans that base their plan year on the plan ending date, i.e., their 2008 plan year beginning date is prior to January 1, 2008.

After January 1, 2010, all Form 5500 filings were submitted electronically through the EFAST2 processing effort. Similar to EFAST, the Form 5500 filings are loaded to a database that is updated daily. However, the EFAST2 database is not divided into sets of data tables based on when the Form 5500 filings are processed.

Plan Selection for the March 2011 Report

In the interest of timely submission of the 2011 Self-Insured Group Health Plans Report to Congress, the data underlying the March 2011 Report included all Form 5500 health plan filings found in the 2008 data tables. Therefore, as the majority of the plan filings are for calendar year plan years, EBSA re-titled the report “Reflecting Calendar Year Filings.”

Plan Selection for the March 2012 Report

² These plans have “plan years” that are not based on the calendar year and their “plan year” i.e., 2008, is based on the year in which the plan year begins, for instance a plan which sets its “plan year” based on its plan inception date.

EBSA decided to harmonize the plan year definition for the Group Health Plans Report with the definition underlying the Form 5500 Private Pension Plan Research File used to produce the Private Pension Plan Bulletin Abstracts. For purposes of the Form 5500 Private Pension Plan Research File, EBSA defines a “statistical year” Form 5500 filing population as all Form 5500 employee benefit plan filings with a plan year ending date between January 1 and December 31 of the given year. As a result, the data underlying the March 2012 Report includes Form 5500 health plan filings that reported a plan year ending date between January 1, 2009 and December 31, 2009.

Terminating Plans

For purposes of the March 2011 Report, certain Form 5500 plan filings were excluded from the analysis:

- Terminated plans (“the final return/report,” Part I, B of Form 5500),
- No participants (“Subtotal,” Part II, Item 6d of Form 5500),
- Plans with a terminated trust (“Has a resolution to terminate the plan been adopted during the plan year or any prior plan year? Yes,” Part IV, 5a of Schedule H and Part II, 5a of Schedule I),
- DFEs (“This return/report is for a DFE (specify),” Part I, A of Form 5500),
- “Voluntary” filing plans (plans which are not required to file the Form 5500), and
- Duplicate filings (only the “best” filing is retained).

For the March 2012 Report, the following Form 5500 plan filings are no longer excluded from the analysis:

- Terminated plans (“the final return/report,” Part I, B of Form 5500),
- No participants (“Subtotal,” Part II, Item 6d of Form 5500), and
- Plan with a terminated trust (“Has a resolution to terminate the plan been adopted during the plan year or any prior plan year? Yes,” Part IV, 5a of Schedule H and Part II, 5a of Schedule I).

Appendix A3: Notes on Changes to the Group Health Plans Report

March 2014

- Table A11 was revised to both include values that were previously excluded and to correct certain published values. All rows in all subtables were affected.

July 2015

- Table A8 was revised to correct certain published values. All values for “Noncollectively bargained plans” were affected.
- Table B2 was revised to include values that were previously excluded. The “11-25” row of the “Plans with fewer than 100 Participants & Trusts” was the only row affected.
