

Your Financial Future:

Tips for your Professional Career and Managing Finances

Webinar – January 30 at 4:00pm ET

Are you a college senior? Starting your first job soon?

This is an exciting time in your life while you plan for a new job, new responsibilities, new challenges... and your financial future! So, before you start your working life, learn about some of the basic financial responsibilities you'll have and what you can do to be financially successful – like making a budget, paying off debt (including student loans), and saving for financial goals. The sooner you start planning and saving, the easier it will be.

For information and tools to help you create a plan for managing your financial life, attend this free webinar from the U.S. Department of Labor. Speakers from the U.S. Department of Education, the Federal Trade Commission, and Unidos US will join us to present information on:

- Mock interviewing tips and how to prepare for interviews
- Managing your debt – including student loans
- Building an emergency savings fund and how to save automatically
- Creating and following a budget
- Managing your credit and understanding your credit scores
- Taking advantage of employee benefits at your future job
- Saving for your financial goals, including retirement
...and more!

Take charge of your financial future – get the knowledge and skills now that you'll need to ensure your financial security, both after graduation and in the years to come. The sooner you start planning and saving, the easier it will be, so sign up for this free webinar today!

REGISTER NOW

(Once you register, the link for the webcast will be emailed to you.)

Individuals with disabilities who need special accommodations, please email Batiste.Ernest.R@dol.gov.

The list of attendees will be available upon request. Please email Batiste.Ernest.R@dol.gov if you do not want your name shared.